

OCTOBER IS

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH

#DVAM2021 #CCNYDVAM

OCTOBER 2021 | Virtual Clothesline Project

Join us throughout October in our Virtual Clothesline Project! Download your virtual t-shirt here.

The Clothesline Project is a visual display of colored t-shirts symbolizing different types of violence. The purpose is honor survivors and to increase awareness of the impact of violence and abuse. Survivors and allies are invited to write a message of affirmation, support or personal experiences to raise awareness and to break the silence. Screen shot, write a message, tag @genderresourcesccny and share.

TUESDAY | October 19th | 4PM

Instagram Live Speaker Series: Domestic Violence Awareness Month 2021: Take Action!

Department of Student Life and Leadership Development

Eric McGriff, Prevention Coordinator at the Crime Victims Treatment Center

Join this Instagram Live to learn about domestic/intimate partner violence, how to identify red flags and take action to support survivors. Submit questions HERE.

THURSDAY | October 21st | 12:30PM-2PM | Relationships 101  [RSVP ]

zoom

Join Mount Sinai Sexual Violence Intervention Program (SAVI) to discuss breaking down concepts of bodily autonomy, consent and navigating cultural and community values. Learn language and other tools to assert your own boundaries and values in a relationship, and support others in doing so as well.

THURSDAY | October 21st | CCNY Go Purple Day

We all have a role in promoting healthy relationships and building healthy communities. Join us in wearing purple on Domestic Violence Awareness Day: Thursday, October 21st to show your support for survivors. Share photos of you wearing purple with @genderresourcesccny on Instagram and use hashtags #CCNYGoPurpleDay and #DVAM2021 #CCNYDVAM
